CENTRUM BROKING LIMITED
ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING POLICY (PMLA POLICY) VERSION 13

1. Background:

As per the provisions of PMLA and the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005 (PML Rules), as amended from time to time and notified by the Government of India, every reporting entity (which includes intermediaries registered under section 12 of the SEBI Act, i.e. a stock-broker, share transfer agent, banker to an issue, trustee to a trust deed, registrar to an issue, asset management company, depository participant, merchant banker, portfolio manager, investment adviser and any other intermediary associated with the securities market and registered under Section 12 of the SEBI Act and stock exchanges), shall have to adhere to the client account opening procedures, maintenance records and reporting of such transactions as prescribed by the PMLA and rules notified there under.

The PML Rules empower SEBI to specify the information required to be maintained by the intermediaries and the procedure, manner and form in which it is to be maintained. It also mandates the reporting entities to evolve an internal mechanism having regard to any guidelines issued by the regulator for detecting the transactions specified in the PML Rules and for furnishing information thereof, in such form as may be directed by SEBI.

The PMLA inter alia provides that violating the prohibitions on manipulative and deceptive devices, insider trading and substantial acquisition of securities or control as provided in Section 12A read with Section 24 of the SEBI Act will be treated as a scheduled offence under schedule B of the PMLA.

Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002

Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (PMLA 2002) forms the core of the legal framework put in place by India to combat money laundering. PMLA 2002 and the Rules notified there under came into force with effect from July 1, 2005. The PMLA 2002 and Rules notified there under impose an obligation on intermediaries (including stock brokers and sub-brokers) to verify identity of clients, maintain records and furnish information to the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) - INDIA

Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) - INDIA

The Government of India set up Financial Intelligence Unit-India (FIU-IND) on November 18, 2004 as an independent body to report directly to the Economic Intelligence Council (EIC) headed by the Finance Minister. FIU-IND has been established as the central national agency responsible for receiving, processing, analyzing and disseminating information relating to suspect financial transactions. FIU-IND is also responsible for coordinating and stretching efforts of national and international intelligence and enforcement agencies in pursuing the global efforts against money laundering and related crimes.

As per these SEBI guidelines, all intermediaries have been advised to ensure that proper policy frameworks are put in place as per the Guidelines on Anti Money Laundering Standards notified by SEBI.

2. Responsibility of CENTRUM BROKING LIMITED (CBL)

By virtue of being a SEBI Registered stock broker of BSE and NSE, Depository Participant of CDSL and Research Analyst, it is mandatory on the party of CBL to have appropriate Anti Money Laundering policy and record All suspicious transactions whether or not made in cash and including, inter-alia, credits or debits into from any non-monetary account such as demat account, security account maintained by CBL.

3. What is Money Laundering?

Money Laundering can be defined as engaging in financial transactions that involve income derived from criminal activity, transactions designed to conceal the true origin of criminally derived proceeds and appears to have been received through legitimate sources/origins.

This is done in three phases – Placement Phase, Layering Phase & Integration Phase.

Objectives of the PMLA Act

The objectives of the Act is to prevent money laundering and to provide for confiscation of property derived (including financial assets) from or involved in money laundering and punish those who commit the offence of Money laundering.

4. Objectives of the Policy:

CBL is committed to examining its Anti - Money Laundering strategies, goals and objectives on an on-going basis and maintaining an effective Anti - Money Laundering program for its business that reflects the best practices for a diversified, retail financial services firm.

CBL AML Policy is designed to ensure that it complies with the requirements and obligations set out in India legislation, regulations, rules and Industry Guidance for the financial services sector, including the need to have adequate systems and controls in place to mitigate the risk of the firm being used to facilitate financial crime. The AML Policy sets out the minimum standards which must be complied with by CBL and includes:

- The appointment of a Principal Officer (PO) of sufficient seniority, who have responsibility for oversight of compliance with relevant legislation, regulations, rules and industry guidance;
- Establishing and maintaining a Risk Based Approach (RBA) towards assessing and managing the money laundering and terrorist financing risks to the Group;
- Establishing and maintaining risk-based customer due diligence, identification, verification and know your customer (KYC) procedures, including enhanced due diligence for those customers presenting higher risk, such as Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs), Non Resident Indians (NRIs);
- Establishing and maintaining risk based systems and procedures to monitor ongoing customer activity;
- Procedures for reporting suspicious activity internally and to the relevant law enforcement authorities as appropriate;
- The maintenance of appropriate records for the minimum prescribed periods;
- Training and awareness for all relevant employees;
- Customer acceptance policies and procedures, which are sensitive to the risk of money laundering (ML) and terrorist financing (TF) are adopted.

- Customer Due diligence (CDD), to the extent that is sensitive to the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing depending on the type of customer, business relationship or transactions is undertaken
- Staff Members' awareness and vigilance to guard against money laundering and terrorist financing is developed.
- To have system in place for identifying ,monitoring and reporting suspected Money Laundering or Terrorist Financing; and
- The provision of appropriate management information and reporting to senior management of CBL's compliance with the requirements;

5. Policy and Procedures

CBL has established following policies and procedures for prevention of Money laundering in compliance with SEBI Master Circular no SEBI/HO/MIRSD/MIRSDSECFATF/P/CIR/2024/78 dated June 06, 2024 which essentially provides broad guidelines in following aspects to align with the principle enshrined in Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (PMLA 2002) & rules framed there under amended from time to time ,

- A. Customer Due Diligence (CDD): Intermediaries are mandated to conduct comprehensive CDD measures. In following four specific parameters:
- i. Policy for acceptance of clients;
 - ii. Procedure for identifying the clients;
 - iii. Risk Management;
 - iv. Monitoring of Transactions.
- B. Record Keeping
Records of all transactions, both domestic and international, will be maintained for at least ten years, including (a)Details of all transactions exceeding ₹1 million,(b) Identification records of customers. And (c) Records of suspicious transactions reported.
- C. Monitoring and Reporting
- Monitor transactions to identify unusual or suspicious activity.
 - Report suspicious transactions to FIU-IND within the prescribed time frame.
 - Ensure confidentiality of all reports and information related to suspicious transactions.
- D. Employee Training
Regular training programs will be conducted to ensure that employees are aware of:
- AML laws and regulations.
 - Their responsibilities in detecting and preventing money laundering.
 - Identifying and reporting suspicious transactions.
- E. Internal Control and Audit
- Robust internal controls to ensure compliance with AML policies.
 - Regular independent audits to assess the effectiveness of AML measures.

F. Risk Assessment

A risk-based approach will be adopted to:

- Identify and assess the money laundering risks associated with customers, products, and services.
- Apply appropriate measures to mitigate identified risks.

6. (a) Principal Officer

The Compliance Officer of CBL is appointed as Principal Officer for proper discharge of legal obligations and report suspicious transactions to authorities. He would act as a central reference point in facilitating onward reporting of suspicious transactions and for playing active role in the identification and assessment of potentially suspicious transactions and shall report to senior management i.e. CEO and Board of Directors. Any change in name, designation and addresses including email addresses of the Principal Officer to be intimated to the office of the Director –FIU. In terms of Rule 2 (f) of the PML Rules, the definition of a Principal Officer reads as under:

Principal Officer means an officer designated by a CBL Provided that such officer shall be an officer at the management level.

The Principal Officer will constantly review the AML Policy of CBL covering the areas of identification / verification / acceptance of customers and the parameters of identification of suspicious transaction.

The Principal Officer will give an orientation to all the concerned staff of CBL on the guidelines of FIU/SEBI and the identification of Suspicious Transactions on a regular basis.

Some of these suggested measures may not be applicable in every circumstance to each business activity. However, keeping in mind, the specific nature of its business, type of customer and transactions in each business division, CBL has to satisfy itself that the measures taken are adequate and appropriate to follow the spirit of these guidelines.

In case there is a variance in Client Due Diligence (CDD)/ Anti Money Laundering (AML) standards specified by SEBI and the regulators of the host country, branches of CBL are required to adopt the more stringent requirements of the two.

6. (b) Designated Director

A whole time Director or a Managing Director or an Executive Director is appointed as Designated Director (as per requirements under the PML Act / Rules) for the purpose of PMLA by way of Resolution by Board of Directors and the appointment is intimated to FIU and regulatory authorities, as required. Changes in the Designated Director are all intimated to FIU and regulatory authorities, as required. The Designated Director is responsible for overall compliance of the obligations imposed under the PML Act and the Rules. The Principal Officer will keep the Designated Director informed of all measures taken for anti-money laundering and all suspicious transactions reported to FIU. Designated Director will bring to the notice of the other directors / Board of Directors all important matters as may be deemed fit. For non-compliance in AML/CFT measures the FIU may penalize the Designated Director.

7. Procedures:

- A. Procedures shall interlay include three specific parameters for Client Due Diligence Process (CDD) which comprises:
- Policy for acceptance of Clients
 - Procedure of identifying clients
 - Transactions monitoring and reporting suspicious transactions (STR)
- B. Client Due Diligence (CDD) measures involve the following:
- Obtaining sufficient information about the client in order to identify who beneficially own or controls the securities account .If the beneficial owner is person other than the client then the party shall be identified by using client identification and verification process scrutinising the identify of that other person.
 - Verify the client's identity using reliable, independent source documents, data or information. Where the client purports to act on behalf of juridical person or individual or trust, CBL shall verify that any person purporting to act on behalf of such client is so authorized and verify the identity of that person
 - Provided that in case of a Trust, the reporting entity shall ensure that trustees disclose their status at the time of commencement of an account based relationship.
 - Identify beneficial ownership and control, i.e. determine which individual(s) ultimately own(s) or control(s) the client and/or the person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted -

The beneficial owner is the natural person or persons who ultimately own, control or influence a client and/or persons on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted, and includes a person who exercises ultimate effective control over a legal person or arrangement.

For clients other than Individuals and Trust, viz., Company, Partnership, or unincorporated association/body of individuals, CBL should identify the beneficial owners of the client and take reasonable measures to verify the identity of the person through following information:

The identity of the natural person, who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, exercises control through ownership or who ultimately has a controlling ownership interest. Explanation:

- i. Controlling ownership interest means ownership of/entitlement to:
- ii. "Control" shall include the right to appoint majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decisions including by virtue of their shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements;
- iii. Identifying beneficial ownership and control, i.e. determine which individual(s) ultimately own(s) or control(s) the client and/or the person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted. The beneficial owner shall be determined as under-

- a. Company-the identity of the Beneficial person/natural person who is acting alone or together or through one or more juridical person, exercises control through ownership or who ultimately has a controlling ownership interest of more than 10% of shares or capital or profits of the juridical person,
 - b. Partnership Firms-10% of shares / property or capital or profits of the juridical person,
 - c. Unincorporated entity or body of individuals-15% of shares / property or capital or profits of the juridical person,
 - d. Trust-In case of Trust beneficial owner or the natural person could be the author of the trust, the trustee, the protector or the beneficiaries with more than 10% interest and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust through a chain of control or ownership.
 - e. Listed entity-where the client or the owner of the controlling interest is an entity listed on a stock exchange in India, or it is an entity resident in jurisdictions notified by the Central Government and listed on stock exchanges in such jurisdictions notified by the Central Government, or it is a subsidiary of such listed entities, it is not necessary to identify and verify the identity of any shareholder or beneficial owner of such entities.
 - f. for foreign investors: Registered intermediaries dealing with foreign investors' may be guided by SEBI Master Circular SEBI/HO/AFD-2/CIR/P/2022/175 dated December 19, 2022 and amendments thereto, if any, for the purpose of identification of beneficial ownership of the client;
 - g. Control can be exercised through voting rights, agreement, arrangements or any other manner. Where no natural person identified in the aforesaid paras the identity of relevant natural person who holds the position of senior managing official shall be considered as beneficiary.
- Verify the identity of the beneficial owner of the client and/or the person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted, corroborating the information provided in relation to the beneficial owner and understand the ownership and control structure of the client.
 - Conduct ongoing due diligence and scrutiny of the account/client to ensure that transaction conducted are consistent with the client's background/financial status, source of funds, its activities and risk profile. Every year the financial statements to be taken on record for all corporate clients.
 - CBL shall review the due diligence measures including verifying again the identity of the client and obtaining information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship, as the case may be, when there are suspicions of money laundering or financing of the activities relating to terrorism or where there doubt the adequacy or veracity of previously obtained client identification data, and

- CBL shall periodically update all documents, data or information of all clients and beneficial owners collected under the CDD process such that the information or data collected under client due diligence is kept up-to-date and relevant, particularly for high risk clients.
- No transaction or account-based relationship shall be undertaken without following the CDD procedure.
- CBL shall register the details of a client, in case of client being a non-profit organisation, on the DARPAN Portal of NITI Aayog, if not already registered, and maintain such registration records for a period of five years after the business relationship between a client and the registered intermediary has ended or the account has been closed, whichever is later
- Where CBL is suspicious that transactions relate to money laundering or terrorist financing, and reasonably believes that performing the CDD process will tip-off the client, CBL shall not pursue the CDD process, and shall instead file a STR with FIU-IND.”
- Though it is not possible to know all the details and exact details of the every client’s background and financial status, it should be our endeavor to make a genuine attempt towards achieving this.

Reliance on third party for carrying out Client Due Diligence (CDD)

In-person verification and verification of document copies of clients / prospective clients against originals are to be done and reliance on third parties / external entities, where necessary, in accordance with SEBI / Exchange / Regulatory guidelines in this regard as may be amended from time to time. {At this point in time, in case of stock brokers, their Authorized Persons i.e. APs (appointed by the stock-brokers after getting approval from concerned stock exchanges) can perform In-Person Verification – as per SEBI Circular dated December 23, 2011}.

Apart from the above, for the purpose of client on-boarding, there may be reliance on third parties for introducing prospective clients to CBL and to assist in (i) procuring documentation from them; (ii) completion of account opening formalities with such prospective clients and (iii) to determine whether client is acting on behalf a beneficiary and conduct the verification of identity of the client.

Such reliance shall be subject to the conditions that are specified in Rule 9 (2) of the PML Rules and shall be in accordance with the regulations and circulars/ guidelines issued by SEBI from time to time. In terms of Rule 9(2) of PML Rules:

- i. CBL shall immediately obtain necessary information of such client due diligence carried out by the third party;
- ii. CBL shall take adequate steps to satisfy itself that copies of identification data and other relevant documentation relating to the client due diligence requirements will be made available from the third party upon request without delay;
- iii. CBL shall be satisfied that such third party is regulated, supervised or monitored for, and has measures in place for compliance with client due diligence and record-keeping requirements in line with the requirements and obligations under the Act;
- iv. The third party is not based in a country or jurisdiction assessed as high risk;

CBL shall be ultimately responsible for CDD and undertaking enhanced due diligence measures, as applicable

8. a. Policy for acceptance of Clients

I. For New Clients

- CBL shall ensure no account or account in fictitious names or account on behalf of other persons whose identity has not been disclosed or cannot be verified are opened
- The clients in general need to be verified with regard to clients' location (registered office address, correspondence addresses and other addresses if applicable), nature of business activity, trading turnover etc. and manner of making payment for transactions undertaken. The parameters shall enable classification of clients into low, medium and high risk. Clients of special category (as given below) may, if necessary, be classified even higher; Such clients require higher degree of due diligence and regular update of Know Your Client (KYC) profile
- Each client should be met in person, before accepting the KYC documents from them. The client should be met at the address provided in the KYC documentation. This will ensure that the address is also verified. Verify the PAN details on the Income Tax website.
- All documentary proofs given by the client should be verified with original.
- Documents like latest Income Tax returns, annual accounts, etc. should be obtained for ascertaining the financial status. If required, obtain additional information/document from the client to ascertain his background and financial status. .CBL may seek additional documents based on the perceived risk of the clients and having regard to the requirements of Rule 9 of the PML Rules, Directives and Circulars issued by SEBI from time to time.
- Obtain complete information about the client and ensure that the KYC documents are properly filled up, signed and dated. Scrutinize the form thoroughly before forwarding it to HO for account opening.
- All the payment should be received from the clients through his bank account provided in the KYC form or subsequently mapped to his trading account through modification form. No payment should be received from third party account and if the client attempt to make the payment from third party account or wants to deposit cash, same should be noted as suspicious transactions for the purpose of STR
- Ensure that the details mentioned in the KYC matches with the documentary proofs provided and with the general verification done by us.
- If the client does not provide the required information, then CBL should not open the account of such clients.
- As far as possible, a prospective client can be accepted only if introduced by CBL's existing client. However, in case of walk in client, enhanced due diligence measures should be taken to ascertain the financial and general background of the client.
- CBL should not open any accounts in fictitious/benami/anonymous basis/ account on behalf of other persons whose identity has not been disclosed or cannot be verified.
- CBL should not open accounts if executives responsible for opening client accounts are unable to apply appropriate KYC procedures.

- The Accounts should not be opened where identity of client cannot be ascertained, or there is a non-co-operation from the client in providing full & complete information, CBL should treat such cases CBL as suspicious and report as STR.

II. Existing clients

- Keep updating the financial status of the client by obtaining the latest Income Tax Return, Net worth Certificate, Annual Accounts or other prescribed documents.
- Update the details of the client like address, contact number, demat details, bank details etc. and keep the Account Opening Team at HO informed of the same. In case, at any point of time, Executive/s are not able to contact the client either at the address or on the phone number, please stop dealing for the client and inform the Principal Officer.
- Check whether the client's identity matches with any person having known criminal background or is not banned in any other manner, whether in terms of criminal or civil proceedings by any local enforcement/regulatory agency. For scrutiny / back ground check of the clients / HNI / ultra-HNIs, on API Screening Utility from a service provider who shall be engaged by the Management for this purpose, should be referred. Also, Prosecution Database / List of Vanishing Companies available on www.sebi.gov.in and RBI Defaulters Database available on www.cibil.com should be checked.

- Review the above details ongoing basis to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with our knowledge of customers, its business and risk profile, taking into account, where necessary, the customer's source of funds.
- Role of Relationship Manager/Dealer/Corporate Settlement/Accounts Department .They should not collect cash from the client and all dues and payments should be made directly from the designated bank account of the client to the broker's account, collections of cheques may be avoided.
- Ensure that there are no third party receipts into / payment from the clients account. Ensure that any information gathered during formal or informal conversation with clients relating to Money Laundering is passed on to the Principal Officer through your Branch/Department Head.

III. RISK PROFILING OF THE CLIENT

1. RISK-BASED APPROACH AND RISK PROFILING OF THE CLIENT

CBL shall follow a Risk Based Approach (RBA) for mitigation and management of identified risk and accordingly client/s shall be categorised as under depending on the circumstances such as the client's background, type of business relationship or transaction etc.

The Company should accept the clients based on the risk they are likely to pose. The aim is to identify clients who are likely to pose a higher than average risk of money laundering or terrorist financing. For this purpose, we need to classify the clients as Low risk, medium risk and high risk clients. By classifying the clients, we will be in a better position to apply appropriate customer due diligence process. That is, for high risk client we have to apply higher degree of due diligence. The factors of risk perception depend on client's KYC details, location, nature of business/trading activity, turnover, nature of transaction, manner of payment etc.

- In order to achieve this objective, all clients should be classified in the following category:
Category A - High Risk
Category B - Medium Risk
Category C - Low risk

8b. Procedure of identifying clients:

Objective:

To have a mechanism in place to establish identity of the client as prescribed by regulations to mitigate pening of fictitious / benami accounts.

- Client identification procedure(CIP):

To follow the Client Identification procedure we follow the following principles:

- i. CBL should carry out the CIP at the time of on boarding the client, during the transaction stage and there arises any doubts over veracity and adequacy of previously obtained information submitted by the clients.
- ii. The client identification process should be enhanced when there is an apprehension that an existing client or potential client is politically exposed person. The source of fund of PEP should be verified.
- iii. The approval of CEO should be in place if an existing client becomes PEP.
- iv. SEBI has specified the minimum requirements relating to KYC for certain class of the registered intermediaries from time to time. The client should be identified by using reliable sources (as permitted by SEBI, Exchanges, Depositories or other regulators) including documents / information.
- v. The information should be adequate enough to satisfy competent authorities (regulatory / enforcement authorities) that due diligence was observed in compliance with the Guidelines. Each original document must be seen before accepting copy.
- vi. Failure by prospective client to provide satisfactory evidence of identity or inconsistencies in the documentation provided by prospective client should be noted and reported to the higher authority within the organization before opening such account.
- vii. No minimum or threshold /category wise exemption is available for carrying out CDD this should be strictly implemented and non-compliance shall be attract appropriate sanctions.
- viii. To conduct ongoing due diligence

For new clients.

Documents which can be relied upon identifying the clients:

Whereas most of the clients are acquired through the personal contacts of relationship manager/dealers, additionally veracity of following documents plays a pivotal in identification of clients:

PAN CARD: It is a mandatory and most reliable document as only one card is issued to an individual and once can independently check its genuineness through IT website.

Other Identity Proofs: Many a times Pan Card carries the old photograph of the client which does not match current facial features of the client or the signature affixed on the same might have changed by the client due to passage of time. In such a scenario other ID proofs like passport, voter id, Aadhar Card or any other proofs issued by Government or PSU bank may additionally take and relied upon.

AADHAR CARD: Aadhaar shall be verified through UIDAI's authentication/ verification mechanism. Further, in terms of PML Rule 9(16), every intermediary shall, where the client submits his Aadhaar number, ensure that such client redacts or mask his Aadhaar number through appropriate means where the authentication of Aadhaar number is not required under sub-rule (15) under PML Rule.

e-KYC through Aadhaar Authentication service of UIDAI (e-KYC) or offline verification through Aadhaar QR Code/ XML file can be undertaken, provided the XML file or Aadhaar Secure QR Code generation date is not older than 3 days from the date of carrying out KYC.

The usage of Aadhaar shall be optional and purely on a voluntary basis by the Client.

The electronic/digital signature, including Aadhaar e-Sign shall be accepted in lieu of wet signature on the documents provided by the client.

Address Proof: For valid address proof we can rely on Voter's Identity Card, Passport, Bank Statement, Aadhar card, Ration card and latest Electricity/telephone bill in the name of the client.

In case of corporate clients, duly certified copies of following documents can be obtained

- Copy of the Registration/Incorporation Certificate
- Copy of the Memorandum & Articles of the Association
- Copy of the PAN card and the Director Index No. (DIN)
- Copy of the latest audited Annual Statements of the corporate client
- Latest Net worth Certificate
- Latest Income Tax return filed.
- Board Resolution for appointment of the Authorized Person who will operate the account.
- Proof of address and identity of Authorized Person

In case of partnership firm one certified copy of the following must be obtained:

- Registration certificate
- Partnership Deed

- Hence Besides obtaining declaration from the client on the KYC form about his PEP status where ever possible the concerned RMs/Branch Heads or person responsible for acquiring clients should independently check the antecedents of the clients and verify whether they fall into the category of PEP as per the definition given in Para (a).
- In case of the clients who are PEP or subsequently found to be PEP or become PEP, the concerned RMs/Branch Heads should obtain the approval of CEO for continuing the business relationship with such client.

- In the event of an existing Customer or the beneficial owner of an existing account, subsequently acquires the status of PEP, CEO approval shall be obtained for continuation of the business relationship by CBL. Such accounts shall be subject to enhanced monitoring norms.
- The client shall be identified by CBL by using reliable sources including documents /information.
- The CBL shall ensure that information obtained above are adequate enough to satisfy competent authorities (regulatory / enforcement authorities) in future due diligence shall be observed by CBL in compliance with the directives. Each original document shall be seen prior to acceptance of a copy.
- CBL shall also take reasonable measures to verify the sources of funds as well as the wealth of clients and beneficial owners identified as PEP.
- Failure by prospective client to provide satisfactory evidence of identity shall be noted and reported to CEO /Board of Directors.

Additional checks at the time of account opening / account modifications:

- In case of corporate clients, CBL shall validate and confirm the CIN, registered address and directors of the corporate, as provided in the KYC form with the information freely accessible on the Government portals such as MCA (Ministry of Corporate Affairs) before opening the account.
- Similarly at the time of intimation by the corporate entity regarding change in directors or address, similar verification will be done by the account opening team with details on MCA / ROC portals before effecting such changes.
- In case no satisfactory explanation of the discrepancy is obtained and the discrepancy is not resolved and it is felt that there are suspicious reasons for the same, the matter along with reasons for suspicion should be brought to the notice of the Principal Officer (FIU) and Principal Officer shall file an STR with FIU regarding such account.
- In case of accounts of partnership firms, account opening team shall check the Partnership Deed of the entity to ensure no HUF is a partner in the firm. In case an HUF is a partner in the firm, the account shall not be opened.
- In case of accounts of LLPs, account opening team shall check the Deed of the LLP and the list of partners of the LLP to ensure no HUF is a partner. In case an HUF is a partner in the LLP, the account shall not be opened. (Ref. MCA Circular dated 29.07.2013)

- as a part of risk management framework, CBL shall obtain and provide following documents to KRAs to enable them to verify the following attributes of records of all clients within 2 days of receipt of KYC records:
- PAN (including PAN Aadhaar linkage, as referred to in rule 114 AAA of the Income-tax Rules, 1962)
- Name
- Address
- Additionally, the KRAs shall verify the client's mobile number and email id.
- In case of PAN exempt records, the other attributes i.e. name, address, mobile number and email id shall be verified by the KRAs.
- Clients in whose case, attributes of records as mentioned i above cannot be verified, shall not be allowed to transact further in securities market until the attributes are verified.

Clients whose KYC are not found to be validated by KRAs i.e. where the KYCs are "On Hold" for any reasons (both AADHAAR and Non-AADHAAR based OVD) uploaded to the KRA shall neither be Permitted to Trade on the Exchange, nor will they be allowed to square up their open positions, if any, until they comply with the validation requirements.

General Guidelines to Relation Managers and persons involved in client acquisition and registration

- Always check original documents before accepting the copies
- Obtain the latest photograph of account holder/ authorized person(s)
- Check for latest IT return of the client/ Net worth Certificate for ascertaining the financial status of the client to know the client suitability of the product being sold to the client
- Review the above details on-going basis to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with our knowledge of customers, its business and risk profile, taking into account, where necessary, the customer's source of funds.
- If the Relationship Manager or such persons involved in client acquisition or client servicing, during his course of interactions with the client, becomes aware of any Income Tax cases or other prosecutions or regulatory actions against the client or any financial issues that the client has got into or if any of his large / substantial assets such as house, factory, office etc. are now subject matter of any dispute, then in such case the employee should make a fresh "Client Information Sheet" with updated facts and submit the same to KYC team. KYC team in turn will alert Compliance or Risk Management team Business Head, as deemed fit, for further action.
- Scrutinize the forms submitted by the client thoroughly and cross-check the details with various documents obtained like source of income. If required, ask for any additional details like salary slips, etc. to satisfy yourself whenever there is a doubt.
- For scrutiny / background check of the clients, on API Screening Utility from a service provider who shall be engaged by the Management for this purpose, should be referred. Also, Prosecution Database / List of Vanishing Companies available on www.sebi.gov.in and RBI Defaulters Database available on www.cibil.com can be checked.

- Keep watch on the welcome kits returned with reason - undelivered. Business Head should be alerted, client be contacted immediately on telephone and the trading, if suspected, should be suspended
- Employee of Centrum Group should not preferably sign as witness on the CRF
- If Employee of Centrum Group introduces the client, exact relation of the client with such employee should be documented.
- The RM / Dealer / BM should meet the client in person at least once before opening the account at the address given by the client. In the process he may reasonably verify the living standards, source of income, financial status, etc. of the client and ensure that the details mentioned in the CRF (Client Registration Form) matches with the actual status.
- If the client is a 'walk-in client', then the concerned branch official should make independent verification about the background, identity and financial worthiness of the client.
- All mandatory proofs of identity, address and financial status of the client must be collected as prescribed by the regulatory authorities, from time to time. The proofs so collected should be verified with the originals. If the prospective client is refusing to provide any information do not forward his/ her account opening form to HO.
- In Person verification should be done only by authorized employees or registered Authorized Persons /Sub broker for their client where ever applicable
- The Concerned regional head or branch head has to be completely satisfied about the background, genuineness and financial status of the client before recommending for opening the account. If required, the regional head or branch head may seek additional information/documents from the client.
- If the account is to be handled by a POA /authorized representative then find out what is the relationship between the client and the POA/authorized representative, establish the identity and background of the client and the POA/authorized representative.
- In case of a corporate account, the branch officials should ensure that the authorized person has got the required mandate by way of Board Resolution. Also, the identity and background of the authorized person has to be established by obtaining the additional documents if required.

For all Existing clients

On an on-going basis, the branches should ensure that the details given in the KYC, by the client, matches with the current details of the client. If required, we can seek additional documents/information from the client to verify the financial/general status of the client.

In cases where:

- There is any material negative change in the financial details of the client from what is given in the KYC.
- If the client is not contactable/traceable or contracts notes/ communications sent are received back undelivered.
- In case the client is prohibited by any regulatory authority.
- The client refuses to provide additional information/document asked for.
- There is a material change in the mandate holder profile/details

- Branches should immediately bring the same to the notice of the Business Head. The Business Head will, in turn, discuss the same with the Principal Officer to decide on the necessary course of action, including reporting to FIU, New Delhi.

8c. Transactions monitoring and reporting suspicious transactions

CBL, on an ongoing basis, should monitor the transactions executed by the client which could be ultimately termed as suspicious as per FIU, India.

- Monitoring of transactions
- To identify the transactions which is in deviation with normal transactions or activities of the client?
- To pay attention to unusually large and complex transactions making no economic sense.
- To apply client due diligence measures also to existing clients on the basis of materiality and risk, and conduct due diligence on such existing relationships appropriately. The extent of monitoring shall be aligned with the risk category of the client.
- To have internal thresholds for each class of accounts and pay special attention when it exceeds the limits
- The background, documents, records, memorandum & clarifications etc. sought for such transactions should be examined carefully and findings should be recorded.
- And such findings should be made available to auditors, SEBI, stock exchanges FIUIND & other relevant regulators during audit & inspection.
- These records should be preserved for 5 years from the date of transaction between client and intermediary.
- The record of transactions under section 12 PMLA should be preserved and Suspicious transaction in terms of section 12 reported to Director FIU-IND.STR should be reported to higher authorities within the Member
- The compliance officer shall randomly examine the selection of transactions and ascertain suspicious or not.

SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS MONITORING AND REPORTING

Circumstances of suspicion

Suspicious Transactions are those which:

- gives rise to reasonable grounds of suspicious that it may involve proceeds of crime. Proceeds of crime" include property not only derived or obtained from the scheduled offence but also any property which may directly or indirectly be derived or obtained as a result of any criminal activity relatable to the scheduled offence.
- appears to be made in circumstances of unusual or unjustified complexity
- appears to have no economic rationale or bona-fide purpose.

I. Factors giving rise to suspicion are:

- Clients whose identity verification seems difficult or clients that appear not to cooperate
- Asset management services for clients where the source of the funds is not clear or not in keeping with clients' apparent standing /business activity;

- Clients based in high risk jurisdictions;
- Substantial increases in business without apparent cause;
- Clients transferring large sums of money to or from overseas locations with instructions for payment in cash;
- Attempted transfer of investment proceeds to apparently unrelated third parties;
- Unusual transactions by CSCs and businesses undertaken by offshore banks/financial services, businesses reported to be in the nature of export- import of small items.

II. CRITERIA FOR ASCERTAINING SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS

- Surveillance / RMS Alerts based on the client's transactions on NSE/BSE/CDSL.
- Unusually large transactions like, clients having traded in scrip/shares of a company over a threshold quantity /value in a single day and volume in that scrip of that client is above a threshold percentage of the total volume in that scrip of the Exchange.
- Negotiated trades /matched trades.
- Client's Turnover not commensurate with financials
- Relation of the client with the company / directors / promoters.
- Clients making huge and regular losses and are still placing trades/orders and further identifying the sources of funds in such cases.
- Large volume in proprietary account of Sub Brokers/Affiliates
- Alerts generated by CDSL based on transactions in Depository Accounts Debit and Credit transactions due to off market or Inter- depository transfers, above a threshold quantity, in an ISIN, in a single transaction or series of transactions threshold quantity/value, in an ISIN, in a single transaction or series of transactions executed during the fortnight.
- Details of debit and credit transactions above a threshold quantity/value whichever is smaller , in an ISIN, which exceed a threshold multiple of the average size of the transaction calculated for the previous months' transactions.
- Details of Off Market transactions (within CDSL or Inter depository) where there are more than a threshold number of transactions in an account, for the past fortnight.
- Any debit transaction in a dormant account for exceeding a threshold quantity/value whichever is smaller, will be reported as an alert. An account having no 'Debit Transaction' in the last 'n' months will be considered as Dormant' account for this purpose.

III. Reporting of Suspicious Transaction

- All employees of CBL shall monitor transactions on a continuous basis and shall report all Cash Transactions and / or Suspicious Transactions to the Principal Officer. It is likely that in some cases transactions are abandoned/aborted by Clients on being asked to give some details or to provide documents. It is clarified that employees should be vigilant and report all such attempted transactions to the MLRO or directly to the Principal Officer as a Suspicious Transaction, even if not completed by Clients, irrespective of the amount of the transaction.
- In any case, all employees are required to exercise diligence and proactively alert "Concerns" in compliance with the Centrum Group's Whistleblower Policy and therefore, this policy be read and implemented in conjunction with the Whistleblower

Policy, particularly Clause 37 of the Whistleblower Policy, without disregard to any other provisions thereof.

- Any suspicious transactions, identified by the MLRO or brought to the notice of the Principal Officer, will be analyzed by the MLRO for FIU reporting, accompanied by reassessment by Principal Officer, where required. If the Principal Officer decides that the transactions need to be reported to FIU he will report the transaction to FIU. If the Principal Officer decides not that the transactions is not suspicious enough to be reported to FIU, he will record the reasons for the same and document it.
- STR to be reported to FIU to their designated web site after registration in the requisite format within 7 days from the date of ascertainment of transactions as suspicious. The principal officer shall be responsible for timely submission of STR to FIU. No nil report is necessary.
- No restrictions to put on the accounts reported under STR. No tipping off to the client are allowed. STR should be filed in utmost confidence. CBL and their directors, officers and employees (permanent and temporary) shall be prohibited from disclosing (“tipping off”) the fact that a STR or related information is being reported or provided to the FIU-IND. This prohibition on tipping off extends not only to the filing of the STR and/ or related information but even before, during and after the submission of an STR. Thus, it shall be ensured that there is no tipping off to the client at any level. Confidentiality requirement does not inhibit information sharing among entities in the group

In case of clients of high risk countries, FATF partially compliant or non-compliant such clients should be subject to enhanced scrutiny of transactions enhanced reporting mechanisms or systematic reporting of financial transactions.

- If any transaction has been reported, as suspicious, to FIU, the Principal Officer has to keep the same confidential. The transaction of the client will be executed, as usual, unless and until told specifically by the Principal Officer or Designated Director to discontinue dealing/close the account of such clients. No suspicion should be created in the client’s mind on the steps taken by CBL. In exceptional circumstances, consent may not be given to continue to operate the account, and transactions may be suspended or other action taken.
- If there is a case of abrupt / unusual request for closure of accounts and / or refund of significant monies by clients, who have been determined to be suspicious or for whom STR has been filed, and such request has come to the notice of any employee, who is aware of the STR / suspicious nature of activities of the client, then employee must consult with the concerned MLRO and Principal Officer before fulfilling the request/taking any action. The MLRO and Principal Officer will consult the regulatory authorities in determining what action in such case.
- Trading exposure/turnover limits to be given to clients based on their margin available in the system. It is also the duty of Risk Management to validate such exposures with the financial details provided by the client in KYC forms. If the trading activity of the client, which is not commensurate with the financial details declared by the client, it should be analyzed and referred to the MLRO with reasons of suspicion, who in turn shall analyze and refer the fit cases for filing of STR to Principal Officer. (can only be done offline after having a utility to capture financial details / net worth of the client).

- Clients of high risk countries, including countries where existence and effectiveness of money laundering controls is suspect or which do not or insufficiently apply FATF standards, as CSC. These measures may include a further enhanced scrutiny of transactions, enhanced relevant reporting mechanisms or systematic reporting of transactions.

In terms of the PMLA rules, brokers and authorized persons are required to do online report of information relating to cash and suspicious transactions to the Director, Financial Intelligence Unit India (FIUIND) within 7 working days of establishment of suspicious at the level of principal officer. In view of the same, Branches/Departments/Sub brokers are requested to report the said transactions within 3 working days of establishment of suspicion to enable the Principal Officer to report the same to the Director, Financial Intelligence Unit India (FIU-IND) within the stipulated time.
